Upmarket Terrace Living

If you are in search of your next home and looking for something a little bit special, then this stylish terrace home is a must to inspect!

Once inside you are truly captivated by the latest in-home living and design, paired with high ceilings to both levels to allow for natural light and sense of space, this home is sure to impress.

The lower level consists of your main living areas featuring air conditioning, which flow seamlessly out through double slider stacker doors to your private decked entertaining area. This is where you will also find the study/home office or guest bedroom. A powder room completed with vanity has also been added for convenience.
